

Mount Marty vs. Presentation

December 15, 2009

Welcome to Mount Marty College

Thank you for joining us for today's event. We hope you enjoy your visit.

We're very proud of the balance our students have between athletics and academics, earning them the prestigious GPAC/Christopherson Award for the third year in a row. This balance makes them winners on and off the court.

As always, our teams are playing among some of the best teams in the country, as the Great Plains Athletic Conference tends to lead the NAIA in national conference appearances. For us, that means plenty of exciting match-ups and entertainment as we cheer on our Lancers.

Sit back and relax (if you can) as you enjoy today's game.

Sincerely,

Dr. James T. Barry
Mount Marty College President

Lancer Women 7th In NAIA

The Lancers

The Lancers are off to an 11-1 start on the season including five victories over nationally ranked teams. The Lancers have started the GPAC season with a 4-1 record and are coming of a thrilling 75-73 victory over GPAC rival and defending National Champs Morningside. Senior guard

Michelle Amundson led the Lancers with 21 points and made the winning basket with a late game steal and then lay-up. Jenny Miller had 20 points in the contest and Cassie Neth recorded a double-double with 15 points and a career high 15 rebounds. With 21 points in the Morningside contest Amundson broke the 1,300 career point plateau. Amundson now has 1,315 career points which is good for 9th on the Lancer All-Time Career Charts.

Coming Up

The Lancer Men are off until Dec. 29 and 30 when they head out to the Oakland, Calif., for the Holy Names Holiday Classic. The Lancers return to Cimpr Arena on Jan. 6 with a GPAC Conference match-up versus Sioux Falls with a 6 p.m. tip-off.

The Saints

The Saints are led by first year head coach Alaina Benson. Benson was a three-year starter for the University of Minnesota-Morris. Benson was named HM All-Conference in 2006 and All-Conference 2007 and 2008. Benson brings a 4-5 squad to Yankton. The Saints are currently 2-0 in the UMAC.
