

Mount Marty vs. Jamestown

November 14, 2009

Lancer Fans,

Welcome to Blue and Gold Weekend. We hope you've have the opportunity to take in the many events planned for you in addition to today's game. You may even recognize a few athletes in other roles on campus.

We're very proud of the balance our students have between athletics and academics, earning them the prestigious GPAC/Christopher Award for the third year in a row. This balance makes them winners on and off the court.

As always, our teams are playing among some of the best teams in the country, as the Great Plains Athletic Conference tends to lead the NAIA in national conference appearances. For us, that means plenty of exciting match-ups and entertainment as we cheer on our Lancers.

Sit back and relax (if you can) as you enjoy today's game.

Coming Up for Lancer Men

The Lancers are currently playing in the Catholic College Challenge at Briar Cliff this weekend. The Lancers play Clark College today with a 2 p.m. tip-off. The Lancers travel to Northern State on Wednesday with a 7 p.m. tip-off. The Lancers first home game is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 21 versus Concordia with a 4 p.m. tip-off. This contest will mark the open of the GPAC regular season schedule for the Lancers.

Women:

Welcome To Blue & Gold Days

The Lancers

The Lancers entered this season with only one returning starter, Michelle Amundson, from last year's 24-9 squad. Juniors Cassie Neth, Jenny Miller and Kendra Schomer and sophomore Kylie Gross have inserted in the line-up and have helped pace the offensive and defensive for the Lancers. The Lancers entered this weekend averaging 79 points per game and only allowing 49 points per game. The Lancers carried a 12-2 record last season in at Cimpr Arena and have accumulated a 34-7 record over three previous seasons.

Coming Up

The Lancers travel to York Nebraska this Tuesday with a 5:30 p.m. tip-off. The Lancers first conference home game is scheduled for Saturday, November 21 versus Concordia with a 2 p.m. tip-off.

The Jimmies

The Jimmies are coached by Mark Wiest. Coach Wiest is in his sixth season leading Jamestown and has an 83-67 record at the college and is 185-135 overall record as a college coach. The Jimmies are coming off a 20-10 season and a 9-5 third place finish in the Dakota Athletic Conference (DAC). The Jimmies also made an appearance at the NAIA National Tourney last season. The Jimmies enter this weekend with a 4-0 record and return a strong group of veterans. The Jimmies return all five starters from last season and two former starters off of medical redshirts. The Jimmies have been picked number 1 in the DAC preseason rankings and are currently ranked sixth in the nation.

Jimmies vs. Lancers

This will be the ninth time these two schools have played with Jamestown coming into the contest with a 5-3 advantage. Jamestown also won last year's match-up 96-81. For the Lancers Michelle Amundson had 13 points and six assists in the contest and Cassie Neth had 10 points and six rebounds. The Jimmies had five players score in the double digits with Kellie Schuneman leading the way with a 23-point effort.
