

Mount Marty vs. Dakota State

December 18, 2009

Women:

Amundson Player Of The Week

Welcome to Mount Marty College

Thank you for joining us for today's event. We hope you enjoy your visit.

We're very proud of the balance our students have between athletics and academics, earning them the prestigious GPAC/Christopherson Award for the third year in a row. This balance makes them winners on and off the court.

As always, our teams are playing among some of the best teams in the country, as the Great Plains Athletic Conference tends to lead the NAIA in national conference appearances. For us, that means plenty of exciting match-ups and entertainment as we cheer on our Lancers.

Sit back and relax (if you can) as you enjoy today's game.

Sincerely,

Dr. James T. Barry
Mount Marty College President

The Lancers

The Lancers are off to a 12-1 start and currently ranked #7 in the Nation. This is the highest ever ranking in school history. The Lancers are coming off a 78-53 victory over Presentation College this past Tuesday. The Lancers had 11 players score in the contest and made 13 3-pointers in the victory. Michelle Amundson and Jenny Miller led the way for the Lancers offensively. Amundson scored 19 points and had 6 assists while Miller scored 16 points and also had 6 assist. A key to the Lancers success this season after graduating four starters can be attributed to the development of Miller, Cassie Neth, and Kylie Gross. Miller is averaging 12.6 ppg this season which is double her output from last season of 6.3ppg. Junior Forward Neth has also been very productive offensively and on the boards. Neth averaged 3.8ppg and 3.6rpg last season. Sophomore Center Kylie Gross has also provided an increase in productivity. Gross averaged 4.6ppg and 2.9rpg.

The Lady T's

The Lady T's are coached by Joe Reints. Coach Reints is a former MMC Men's Basketball assistant under Coach Jim Thorson. Reints has a career record of 81-59 as a collegiate head coach and is 12-26 while leading DSU. Reints was formerly the head coach at Lambuth University from 2005-2008. Reints led LU to the 2007 NAIA DI National Championship. The Lady T's enter tonight contest with a 4-5 record and have wins over the University of Sioux Falls and an exhibition victory over NCAA D II University of Nebraska at Kearney. The Lady T's are coming off of a 102-54 lost to University of Wyoming in an exhibition game.

Lady T's vs. Lancers

This contest will mark the 64th time these former SDIC foes have met. The Lancers have the advantage in the series 35-28. The Lancers won last year's match-up 68-56.

Michelle Amundson and the Record Book

Senior Guard Michelle Amundson was named GPAC Player of the Week for her performance against Morningside this past Saturday. Amundson has had many accolades over her career. During her freshman year Michelle was a 1st All-GPAC, GPAC Freshman of the Year, and HM All-American and helped lead the Lancers to a Sweet Sixteen National appearance. During her sophomore year Michelle was 2nd All-GPAC. During her junior year Michelle was 1st Team All-GPAC and HM All-American and led the Lancers to another National Tournament appearance. Amundson has now taken aim on the Mount Marty Record Book-Entering tonight's contest here is how Amundson stacks up in the Top 10 career charts: 1,334 Points-9th All Time; 288 Assists-9th All Time; 236 Steals-6th All Time; 2.18 Steal per game-6th All Time; 308 Free Throws Made-10th All Time; 144 3-pointers Made-3rd All Time; 47.7% FG %-9th All Time; 82.1% FT%-4th All Time; 43.5% 3-point% 1st All-Time; 331-3 point Attempts-6th All Time.
